

KINDER

In Germany, children's literature is a vibrant part of the editorial scene. In 2019, Blue Metropolis International Literary Festival had the pleasure of welcoming Cornelia Funke, who is well renowned both in Germany and abroad as a writer and illustrator of books for young people. For more suggestions, here's a selection of other children's authors whose books have been translated from the German. (This list was created in collaboration with the Goethe-Institut Montreal.)

Cornelia Funke

READING RECOMMENDATIONS FOR YOUNG READERS

IN ENGLISH

Cornelia Funke

Pan's Labyrinth: The Labyrinth of the Faun, coauthored with Guillermo del Toro (Katherine Tegen Books, 2019)

Wolf Erlbruch

Duck, Death and the Tulip (Gecko, 2010)

Marc-Uwe Kling

The Kangaroo Chronicles, trans. Sarah Cossaboon, Paul-Henri Campbell (Volland + Quist, 2016) audio book for 10 years +

Torben Kuhlmann

Armstrong - The Adventurous Journey of a Mouse to the Moon (NorthSouth Books, 2016)

Lindbergh: The Tale of a Flying Mouse (NorthSouth Books, 2014)

Patrick Wirbeleit

Box, illus. Uwe Heidschötter (Top Shelf Productions, 2019)

IN FRENCH

Cornelia Funke

Le Labyrinthe de Pan, coécrit avec Guillermo del Toro (Michel Lafon, 2019);

La Plume du griffon (Gallimard Jeunesse, 2018)

Michael Ende

L'histoire sans fin, (Hajeuroman, 2014);

Momo, (Bayard jeunesse, 2009)

Annette Langen

Lettres de mon lapin : Félix fait le tour du monde (Abbeville, 1994)

– plusieurs titres de la même auteure dans cette série

